Let Go! Let God!-Peter J. Robinson 2021-05-28 Let Go! Let God! By: Peter J. Robinson Peter J. Robinson's story is one of transformation: from a partying, charismatic womanizer to a humble vessel of God. Throughout the journey of his life, his experiences, both joyful and painful, show how the power of prayer and surrendering to God's will can truly deliver one to a life of peace and satisfaction. The aim of this memoir is to help heal, empower, and set the reader free from their own shackles of physical pleasure and spiritual destruction.

Cultivating Pearls-Christina Dimari 2019-09-03 Cultivating Pearls begins the process of discovering how to walk with God in an intimate way. It is not just a formula of "do this and do that and say this prayer and read this verse and, ta-da, you're done." It is learning how to communicate with our Father, to understand the fact that He is an inexhaustible fountain of water and life, and He desperately desires to feed our souls and purify us for His glory so we can reflect His love to our world. Unique coloring pages and journaling prompts will create a safe and open place for you to meet God, then express and formulate your feelings in a creative concrete way. Through this process you will discover the rhythm of walking with God and knowing how to stay connected to Him as your Source of Life. You will be blessed, encouraged, and empowered to find wholeness, and will find new ways to use your unique God-given gifts to point others to Life! Learn how to let God into every area of your life--spiritually, mentally, emotionally, relationally, and physically--so that He can cultivate you into the beautiful pearl you are meant to be.

Let God Be True and Every Man a Liar-Victor Perez 2013-06-17 We as the church are being looked at by the lost world as a bunch of hypocrites. We need to seriously consider this viewpoint in how we are evangelizing the lost. Currently there are 3,500 people leaving the church from all denominations daily. This is definitely not the Lord's plan for the Body of Christ. Another statistic showed that from the years 2000 to 2008, 20 million people left the North American church from all denominations.

Matthew 11: 28 (NAS) reads, "Come to Me, all you who are weary and heavy laden, and I will give you rest." When the Lord Jesus Christ uses the term all, He is referring to every single person on Earth. When the church uses the term all, they are referring to only those who belong to their denomination. This should not be. I truly believe that the Lord Jesus wants to redefine who He wants to be in each and every one of our lives, if we let Him. The question is, do we want Him to, or are we comfortable with where we are operating as different denominational churches? What the world is experiencing currently is testimony that business as usual has ended for the entire church world.

Abiding Under the Shadow-David Lebo 2009-11 Do you abide under the Shadow of the Almighty? What does it mean to be in covenant with God, and what are the benefits? Let Go and Let God: The Path to Freedom-Renee E. Jones 2011-10-01 In this book I share my story of how I made the shift from living a life filled with fear, loneliness, insecurities and frustrations to one overflowing with joy, peace, love and freedom. You will learn: How to embrace and accept seemingly painful changes God asks of you so you can live a better and more productive life How to turn all of your problems over to God for positive outcomes How to cease from wandering in the wilderness to walking in the light and glory of God How to stop chasing butterflies and become God-chasers How to accept yourself as the beautiful individual God has created you to be How to let go of your life and let God mold and shape you into a powerful being How to walk in victory as God has preordained you to do God does not have favorites. He is a respecter of faith. It is a person's faith that moves God. If you believe God wants you to live a prosperous life you will have it. The first step to receiving anything from God is having faith and being confident that He will do what you are asking Him to do. God has delivered me from so many things and I desire Him to do the same for you. So, come join me as I walk you through my journey of letting go and letting God.

The Palgrave Handbook of Radical Theology-Christopher D. Rodkey 2018-10-10 The Palgrave Handbook of Radical Theology is the definitive guide to radical theology and the commencement for new directions in that field. For the first time, radical theology is addressed and assessed in a single, comprehensive volume, including introductory and historical essays for the beginner, essays on major figures and their thought, and shorter articles on various themes, concepts, and related topics. This book is a seminal work for the radical theology movement. It clarifies origins and demonstrates the exigency and utility of current figures and issues. A useful and essential guide for newcomers and veterans in the field, this volume serves as both a reference work and an introduction to omitted or forgotten topics within contemporary discussions.

New Life-Dale L. Brand

The Life of a P.K.-Donna Lynn 2014-10-21 Through a moving autobiographical account, Donna Lynn reveals the downfall of a passionate adopted child, who took to heart the slights she encountered as a pastor's kid in her father's Evangelical churches. As she grew up, Donna fell into a downfall to such an abject state that she even tried to take her own life. Donna describes compelling details of her long road to recovery, forgiveness, and even miracles. She describes in raw detail what it's like to grow up as a PK in a church. It was in the midst of her strife where Donna found God's grace and love. Donna learned she was never too far away for God to find her.

Be Still-Robert Paul Baeyens 2010-05-01 Being still is an art. If we can learn to master this skill we can better appreciate the free gift of life that has been given to all of us. Robert Paul Baeyens wrote this book to help the reader learn to make better decisions, have greater confidence and achieve happiness while at the same time taking that rare look inward, being honest with oneself and facing topics that are uncomfortable and then committing to taking a stance. We all want to find answers to questions such as: • Are we in control? • Is there a God with an ultimate plan for us? • Is there a choice to be made that affects us for eternity? • Are there multiple paths to an eternal existence? From the beginning man has been perplexed by the question as to whether or not God really exists. Many civilizations were built or destroyed over their beliefs in a higher power or lack thereof. And still nobody can prove or disprove whether He does or not. If this one simple question could be answered and proven either way, then mankind would certainly be significantly changed. Does one have to believe in God in order to be happy? Is there meaning to life without God at the center of all things? And, most importantly, should we be acting differently during our walk through life based on how we answer these questions? Once we establish our belief then how do we live life to the fullest based on that belief? How can we maximize our happiness and at the same time walk morally, ethically and for the improvement of society and mankind? Whether or not one believes in God, it is undeniable that we should make that our common goal. The intent of "Be Still" is to answer these and other questions in order to live life to the fullest and to be our best possible person for our own sake as well as the sake of others. It is more than a mystery in need of a solution; it is and should be every man and woman's responsibility. To make no choice is to make a choice for complacency, as so many do. That is irresponsible to oneself and to society. The challenge is for every man and woman to stand up and make a choice and then to live life to its fullest based on that choice. One thing is for certain --either there is a God--or there isn't. Fair enough? Let's start with that. This book is for Christians that are seeking self improvement and who want to learn how to connect with God at a deeper level. It offers Non-Christians the opportunity to learn about the Christian faith and find peace through biblical based teachings. "Be Still" will allow the reader to connect with God on a deeper level as it reveals man's nature, God's nature and your free will to make choices. Most of all, "Be Still" will teach you that the only way to true happiness is to allow God to be God in your life.

Deeper Christian Life (Masterpiece Collection) Large Print-Andrew Murray 2013-11 1. The first and chief need of our Christian life is, Fellowship with God. The Divine life within us comes from God, and is entirely dependent upon Him. As I need every moment afresh the air to breathe, as the sun every moment afresh sends down its light, so it is only in direct living communication with God that my soul can be strong. The manna of one day was corrupt when the next day came. I must every day have fresh grace from heaven, and I obtain it only in direct waiting upon God Himself. Begin each day by tarrying before God, and letting Him touch you. Take time to meet God. 2. To this end, let your first act in your devotion be a setting yourself still before God. In prayer, or worship, everything depends upon God taking the chief place. I must bow quietly before Him in humble faith and adoration, speaking thus within my heart: "God is. God is near. God is love, longing to communicate Himself to me. God the Almighty One, Who worketh all in all, is even now waiting to work in me, and make Himself known." Take time, till you know God is very near. 3. When you have given God His place of honour, glory, and power, take your place of deepest lowliness, and seek to be filled with the Spirit of humility. As a creature it is your blessedness to be nothing that God may be all in you. As a sinner you are not worthy to look up to God; bow in self-abasement. As a saint, let God's love overwhelm you, and bow you still lower down. Sink down before Him in humility, meekness, patience, and surrender to His goodness and mercy. He will exalt you. Oh! Take time, to get very low before God. 4. Then accept and value your place in Christ Jesus. God delights in nothing but His beloved Son, and can be satisfied with nothing else in those who draw nigh to Him. Enter deep into God's holy presence in the boldness which the blood gives, and in the assurance that in Christ you are most well pleasing. In Christ you are within the veil. You have access into the very heart and love of the Father. This is the great object of fellowship with God, that I may have more of God in my life, and that God may see Christ formed in me. Be silent before God and let Him bless you. 5. This Christ is a living Person. He loves you with a personal love, and He looks every day for the personal response of your love. Look into His face with trust, till His love really shines into your heart. Make His heart glad by telling Him that you do love Him. He offers Himself to you as a personal Saviour and Keeper from the power of sin. Do not ask, can I be kept from sinning, if I keep close to Him? But ask can I be kept from sinning, if He always keeps close to me? And you see at once how safe it is to trust Him. 6. We have not only Christ's life in us as a power, and His presence with us as a person, but we have His likeness to be wrought into us. He is to be formed in us, so that His form or figure, His likeness, can be seen in us. Bow before God until you get some sense of the greatness and blessedness of the work to be carried on by God in you this day. Say to God, "Father, here am I for Thee to give as much in me of Christ's likeness as I can receive." And wait to hear Him say, "My child, I give thee as much of Christ as thy heart is open to receive." The God who revealed Jesus in the flesh and perfected Him, will reveal Him in thee and perfect thee in Him. The Father loves the Son, and delights to work out His image and likeness in thee. Count upon it that this blessed work will be done in thee as thou waitest on thy God, and holdest fellowship with Him.

You Can Depend On God-Monisha Steele 2010-07-26 Monisha Steele is an anointed psalmist who has been in Christian mainstream since 1988. Born in Cleveland, Ohio, she became a recording artist, singing and traveling abroad, and being the opening act at concerts for major gospel recording artist. In 1998, Monisha began writing as a hobby and soon realized that God was inspiring her to publish her work to help others... "I am anointed by God in many ways to just help people" Monisha's writing style springs from a plethora of experience and her debut book "You Can Depend on God" is certainly a reflection of that! "Experience is a great persuader" Monisha and her husband Steven live in Tulsa, Oklahoma, and are the parents of three children.

Devotions of My Heart-Teresa M. Wilson 2010-11 God says, "You will seek Me and find Me, when you search for Me with all your heart." In this book, Teresa shares her insights into how God has revealed his plan through the everyday joys and struggles of life. During these ninety days of meditation on God's Word, let him speak to your heart. Let Him strengthen you in the amazing journey he has planned for your life. Let God prepare your heart to do his will.

While I'm Waiting-Judy Scott 2014-05-31 Let me begin by saying that the Lord loves you. He loves you more than you love yourself. The Bible says that he loves us with an "everlasting love" (Jer. 31:3). God's love for you my sister, is steadfast, perpetual and beyond description. God wants you to know today that he is with you and has not forgotten about you. I know your adversary has been trying to wear you down and make you give up and walk away from God. He wants you to believe that God does not love you-that he does not care about you. He will tell you that it will never happen for you, that you're getting old, that you're not pretty enough and no one will want you. These are lies, all lies! Sister, can I please tell you that what God is planning for you is far greater than anything you can plan for yourself. Whatever you do, don't give up, you cannot walk away from God! You must take God at His Word and know that he will come through for you. The man that God has for you is worth waiting for. Wait on the Lord, my Sister and again I say, Wait! You will NOT be disappointed if you wait on God. Sure, you can go out and get your own man. Of course you can. You can hook yourself up! But, if you do that, you'll end up with someone that is not God's best for you. Don't cheat yourself, Sister. God will not fail you. Hold on to God and let Him hold on to you. The rest of your life will be the best of your life. Let God write your love story. "Wow! What an awesome conference, focused on one theme: encouraging women to wait on the Lord! None of us need to go to one more conference, unless it's the right conference. While I'm Waiting is the right conference." —Dr. Cheri Pavi Givens

Making a Spiritual Warrior-Evan Trinkle 2017-09 The Making of a Warrior Bible Study and its designated parts outline a process that will shape, mold, forge, and transform your daily life with God. Every man's life consists of a journey that will present many crossroads, options, or choices. These intersections in life can be challenging. Often they become defining moments in our life that take us down a road we never intended to travel. Based on one's choices, the result can be a blessing or a curse, good or evil, increase or decrease. Let this study be a starting point in your life, from which you will make wise decisions that will impact your life in a positive way. It is my greatest desire for your life to be transformed by this study, whether through personal encounters and responses to the challenging questions or just by listening to responses of others around you if involved in a group study setting. My passion is that you will be a man after God's own heart. Allow yourself to be influenced by the Word of God. Let the Holy Spirit of God give you guidance, wisdom, and instruction to navigate successfully through your daily life. It is essential to humble yourself in order to receive all that God has for you through this study. Life is not about how you start, but how you finish! What others say about the study: My dear brother in Christ, I congratulate you! You are about to embark on a journey of life-changing proportions. This bible study will deepen your understanding of God's Word and its life-enhancing and life-changing truth. The Christian life is a journey. Most of the time a journey is completed in stages. Stages indicate that there is a process involved in reaching the destination. In the Christian life, the destination is holiness of life. God uses his divine process to bring us to holiness. This process involves his methods that will take us step by step to where he accomplishes his purpose for our life. Jeremiah 29:11 says, "I [God] have a plan [process and purpose] for you and it is a good plan—a plan to prosper you." Like any journey one decides to take, there is anticipation or dread. The journey can be delightful or a drudgery. Your attitude in this study will determine its impact upon your life. My prayer is that as you engage in this study of God's Word, you will recognize it as one aspect or event of God's divine process to lead you toward a life of holiness. If you will allow God to work in your life, he can and will use this study to move you closer to knowing him more intimately. So, my brother, I encourage you to anticipate and enjoy God's revelation for your life. Steve Gehring To the reader and student of "Making a Spiritual Warrior," I would like to provide you with my strongest endorsement of this study. I think you'll find, as I did, that you will be challenged as you progress through these lessons. During this study, you will have to look inward and examine your relationship not only with God but also with your family and those you call friends. I know you will find, as you participate with your group, that the author has provided you with the biblical tools to become the strongest warrior and man after God's own heart you possibly can be. I was personally challenged by the study to take a hard look at my relationship with the Lord. By answering honestly the questions in the lessons, I understood that my own walk had blind spots that needed to be addressed in order for me to grow closer to God. I challenge you to have the courage of a warrior and to use this study to examine your own walk. Enjoy the study and your journey as you discover just what it takes to become a warrior for Christ. Challenge yourself and those in your group to answer the questions without fear or judgment. Decide for yourself today that you will finish what you have started and learn as much as possible from God's Word. See you on the high ground. Joel Hardin

Our Next Steps-Andre Gilbert 2019-08-13 Life has a lot to do with having energy. Our body being able to produce good energy from what we take in on a daily basis is critical to the health of our body, mind, and spirit; they're all linked whether we acknowledge that fact or not. It doesn't matter if you're poor or rich, what color, what race, what culture, or what religion""we all have the same natural body, and it needs natural sources of energy. Author- I've given a bird's eye view of where we are as planet and species because knowing is half the battle. I've also lit up the path in the right direction because doing something about it is the other half. It's better to crawl in the right direction than the run in the wrong. Andre Gilbert has developed a literary contribution that delves into serious issues that distort the emotional and physical health of humanity today. Simply put, the doors are opened into worlds that are seldom addressed and hardly ever resolved. Hippocrates Health Institute, which I have had the privilege to direct since 1980, like Andre, believe that one must make significant change in attitude and lifestyle to become whole happy and well. When using this book as a guide to reformulate and organize your life, the results will be magnificent. There is one thing for sure, few people have been as spot on as Gilbert in his approach to wellbeing. Be well, ""Brian R. Clement, PhD, LN, Directo

Racing Fuel for the Spirit-Roy Jenkins 2005-08-26 Motorcycling has become more than a fad in America. It is now a pastime for a growing number of people. Entire families are riding dirt bikes and ATVs for recreation. Motocross racing is the fastest growing motor sport behind

NASCAR and has captured the imagination of an entire generation of fans who enjoy the excitement of extreme sports. Roy Jenkins started riding motorcycles in the early 70s and was a successful amateur racer by the time he graduated from High School. Today he is a motocross racing announcer, chaplain, teacher and journalist. Racing Fuel for the Spirit is his second book written for motorcycle riders who want inspiration and spiritual growth from the Bible. Using his 20 years of Bible teaching experience and Masters degree in Biblical Studies, this ordained minister leads weekly devotions at motocross and Arenacross races in Mississippi and Louisiana. He uses stories from his years as a Pastor, River deck hand, Oil-field commercial diver, school teacher and most importantly as a husband and father. He throws in some stories from his experiences from motocross racing, cross-country motorcycle trips, and even sailing adventures. Photos from the people, places and events are sprinkled liberally throughout the book. His calling, gift and purpose is to get the Bible into the hands of people who won't normally read it for themselves. He uses a real life story, raises an interesting question, then brings in the appropriate Bible principle, sometimes finishing off with a memorable quote for the day. In this book he includes photos from the world of motorcycling and beyond to help the reader picture the inspirational thought. Racing Fuel for the Spirit is especially helpful for those who are too busy to read, but are interested in hearing how God's Word applies to a wide range of everyday topics such as: love, family, worry, prayer, patience, health, competing, depression, work, school, getting old, enjoying life, hope,
